NOTICE TO MARINERS

PUBLIC TRAFFIC REGULATIONS CONTAINING INSTRUCTIONS FOR MERCHANT VESSELS, FISHING AND OTHER SMALL CRAFT, SEEKING ENTRANCE INTO BRITISH COLUMBIA PORTS, VIA THE STRAIT OF JUAN DE FUCA

By Order of the Commanding Officer, Pacific Coast, with concurrence of Military Authority.

1. UNTIL further notice the following regulations which cancel all former Public Traffic Regulations for the Ports of Esquimalt and Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster, are to be observed by Merchant Vessels (see definitions, paragraph 5) seeking entrance to British Columbia ports or territorial waters via the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

2. These Regulations are issued for the guidance of Masters of vessels and must be obeyed or their ships will be treated as hostile. They will remain in force until amended or cancelled by a Notice to Mariners.

3. These Regulations are supplementary to the general Rules and Regulations concerning caution when approaching and navigating within British and Canadian Ports issued in British and Canadian Notices to Mariners, and to such other orders for the regulation of shipping as may be issued from time to time in British and Canadian Notices to Mariners.

4. Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with these Regulations, the ordinary regulations of the ports are to be adhered to.

5. For the purpose of these Regulations:—

- (a) Fog, thick weather is considered to exist when it is impossible owing to meteorological or other conditions affecting visibility, to communicate between the Examination Vessel and approaching ships by visual signals.
- (b) "Merchant Vessels." For the purpose of these Regulations, the term Merchant Vessels includes all vessels other than the Examination Vessels and Allied and Neutral War Vessels.
- (c) "Small Craft" refers to all vessels and boats other than ocean-going Merchant Vessels or those wearing Allied and Neutral Naval Ensigns.
- (d) "Night" refers to the period between fifteen minutes after sunset to fifteen minutes before sunrise.

PART I—ENTRANCE TO THE STRAIT OF JUAN DE FUCA

6. All vessels of more than 1,000 tons gross entering Juan de Fuca Strait must close and identify themselves to the Recognition Vessel which is established in position approximately 9.5 miles 320 degrees from Cape Flattery Light, in latitude N. 48° 30' 40", Longitude W. 124° 53' 12", and shall not proceed further without permission to do so from the Recognition Vessel. Identification shall be effected by means of the code supplied to Merchant Ships.

This Recognition Vessel (Lightship) will display a group flashing white light, showing two flashes every 30 seconds; flash, 5 seconds; eclipse, 5 seconds; flash, 5 seconds; eclipse, 15 seconds.

The fog signal, a chime diaphragm air horn, will sound two blasts of 2 seconds duration every 30 seconds: Blast, 2 seconds; silent, 2 seconds; blast, 2 seconds; silent interval, 24 seconds.

7. Having passed the Recognition Vessel, Merchant Ships must be prepared to answer the challenge made to them by any Naval Vessel and to observe any orders which may be given to them by such vessels.

8. Vessels bound for Canadian Ports via the Strait of Juan de Fuca

- (a) Merchant Vessels. Unless special exemption is given, Merchant Vessels whether over or under 1,000 gross tons (excepting small craft) bound for any Canadian port between William Head and Yorke Island, must then proceed to the Examination Vessel which will be found anchored in position 3.5 cables 270 degrees from William Head Light, where they will undergo Naval examination. Quarantine inspection will take place at the same time, unless vessels are exempt therefrom. Pilots may also be taken aboard at the same time and place unless it is desired by the Merchant Vessel to embark pilot earlier.

- (b) Small Craft. Fishing vessels, other small craft not over 250 gross tons, and tugs with tows will not proceed to William Head for examination but are to proceed to the Small Craft Inspection Service at Sooke Harbour. (If entering inland waters via Johnstone Strait they must be identified and passed by Naval Examination at Yorke Island.)

PART II—ENTRANCE TO CANADIAN PORTS

Port of Victoria

9. Merchant vessels may enter the port of Victoria by day or night after being passed by Naval Examination at William Head, but any special instructions given by the Boarding Officer must be closely observed. Merchant Vessels seeking entry from any other direction than the Strait of Juan de Fuca or Johnstone Strait may enter the port without stopping for identification.

Fishing vessels and other small craft entering the Port via the Strait of Juan de Fuca may do so without further formalities after reporting to Sooke Harbour. If seeking entrance from any other direction no examination is required.

Port of Esquimalt

10. Merchant vessels inbound via the Strait of Juan de Fuca and having passed through Naval Examination at William Head must pass through the gate of the Boom Defences at the entrance to Esquimalt Harbour at a speed not exceeding six knots, or the minimum compatible with safe navigation. Before passing through the Boom Gate all vessels should make sure that the Boom Gate Signals are in their favour.

Esquimalt Harbour is closed to Merchant Vessels during dark hours and by day in fog.

The Port Closed Signals are:—

By Day: Three red balls in a vertical line;
By Night: Three red lights in a vertical line.

The above signals will be hoisted on Bickford Tower at the Eastern entrance to Esquimalt Harbour.

If bound to Esquimalt from any direction other than the Strait of Juan de Fuca, Merchant Vessels must notify Naval Officer-in-Charge, Esquimalt, and receive permission to enter the harbour at the time designated. This may be done through the Naval Officer-in-Charge, Vancouver, the Chief Examining Officer at Yorke Island or the Naval Boarding Officer at William Head, as requisite.

Fishing vessels and other small craft if entering Esquimalt from any other direction than the Strait of Juan de Fuca (and thus having reported to the Small Craft Inspection Service at Sooke Harbour) must stop at the Boom Gate Vessel and state their business and obtain permission to enter. If they have already reported to Small Craft Inspection Service at Sooke Harbour and advised their intention of entering Esquimalt Harbour it will then only be necessary to report their name to Gate Vessel.

Port of Vancouver

11. The Port will normally be open to traffic both day and night in all weathers.

Fishing and other small craft may enter the Port without formalities.

All Merchant Vessels and small craft, however, must obey any special orders given to them by Naval patrols, and must promptly respond to any challenge made to them.

Messages for merchant ships may be passed to them through the Signal Station at Point Atkinson.

Port of New Westminster

12. There are no special regulations affecting the Port other than the normal port regulations.

Advice to Ship Owners and Agents

13. Owners or Agents of ocean-going vessels which are inbound from sea to British Columbia ports situated between Yorke Island and Johnstone Strait to the North, and the Strait of Juan de Fuca to the South, should give notice of these ships' arrival to the Naval Control Service Officer at Vancouver, B.C., and Victoria, B.C., giving the following particulars:—

- (i) Name of vessel.
- (ii) Date and time due at the Port.
- (iii) Appearance and distinguishing features, such as funnel marks, etc.
- (iv) Nature of cargo.
- (v) Ports of lading and ports of discharge.
- (vi) Number of passengers, if any.

PART III—INTERNAL MOVEMENT

Port of Victoria

14. In the Port of Victoria the Harbour Master has authority over the movements of all Merchant Vessels.

Small craft (which includes all small yachts, pleasure craft, fishing boats, or any small craft propelled by oars, sail or paddles), shall not approach within 200 yards of the Victoria Machinery Depot shipyards, situated at Outer Wharf and at Point Ellice in Victoria Harbour.

Port of Esquimalt

15. The Naval Officer-in-Charge, Esquimalt, has authority over the movements of all Merchant Vessels in the Port of Esquimalt.

No log booms are allowed to enter the Port without special permission from the Chief Examining Officer, H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt.

Fishing craft and small privately owned pleasure craft are prohibited from entering Constance Cove, Esquimalt Harbour, as defined by the area Eastward of a line joining the Westernmost Boom Gate Vessel and the Municipal boundary close Northwestward of Monroe Head.

Movement of all Merchant Vessels is strictly prohibited within the Port during fog or thick weather unless permission has been obtained from the Naval Officer-in-Charge.

The internal waterways and approaches to the Port will be patrolled by Naval patrol vessels and Masters and others in charge of Merchant Vessels or small craft are hereby warned to observe all orders given by Naval Patrols. All Merchant Vessels are subject to inspection and search by these Patrols. Disobedience of orders given by these Patrols renders a Merchant Vessel liable to be fired on.

Port of Vancouver

16. The Naval Officer-in-Charge, Vancouver, has authority over the movements of all vessels in the Port of Vancouver and its vicinity.

Both navigation and anchorage is prohibited within the following area off Ferguson Point (Lat. 49° 18' 06" N., Long. 123° 09' 28" W.), indicated by lines joining the following points:—

- (A) 025°, 0.75 miles from Ferguson Point;
- (B) 205°, 0.75 miles from Ferguson Point;
- (C) 295°, 1.0 miles from (B);
- (D) 295°, 1.0 miles from (A).

Gillnet fishing is prohibited in the area North of a line drawn West true from Siwash Rock and East of a line drawn South true from Point Atkinson.

The speed of Merchant Vessels within the Harbour entrance is not to exceed the minimum compatible with safe navigation.

There are no special prohibitions with regard to routes, unless such may become necessary when due notice will be given in a Canadian Notice to Mariners subsequent to the date of these Regulations.

The internal waterways of the Port and the approaches thereto will be patrolled by Naval Patrol Craft. Captains, Masters and others in charge of Merchant Vessels are hereby warned to observe any orders given by Naval Patrols. All Merchant Vessels are subject to inspection and search by these Patrols. Disobedience of orders given by these Patrols renders a Merchant Vessel liable to be fired on.

17. Use of Wireless Telegraphy, Wireless Telephony and Sound Signalling

The use of any of the above methods of communicating or signalling, for any purpose whatsoever, is forbidden in the harbours of Canada.

For the proper enforcement of the above, the wireless telegraph office or offices of such ships will be sealed up by the Radio Inspector of the Department of Transport or a Customs Official acting for him boarding the vessel on arrival in Port.

During the stay of the vessel in harbour, access to the wireless telegraph office will only be allowed under the following conditions:—

If the vessel is remaining in harbour for some time so that it is necessary for wireless staff to have access to the office in order to attend to batteries, etc., the Master of the Merchant Vessel will be responsible for notifying the Radio Inspector or Customs Officer that such access will be required, in order that the latter may arrange for the breaking of the seals. The Master will be held responsible that no messages are transmitted while the office is open and should state for how long access is required, so that the Radio Inspector or Customs Officer may afterwards go on board and reseal the Office.

Any breach of these Regulations renders the Master of the offending ship liable to penalties, and to the confiscation of the wireless apparatus of his ship.

NOTE.—Use of Wireless Telephony in Canadian coastal waters by tugs, fishing craft, etc., will be governed by special regulations which will be issued from time to time by the Commanding Officer, Pacific Coast. These instructions will be promulgated to all coastwise craft concerned through the Superintendent of Radio, Department of Transport, Victoria, B.C.

LEAVING THE PORT

Port of Victoria

18. No vessel may leave the Port of Victoria without permission from the Collector of National Revenue (Customs Division), in writing. When a Merchant Vessel desires to leave the Port the Master or Shipping Agent will inform the Collector of National Revenue (Customs Division) who will decide whether the ship may depart or not.

Normally, Merchant Vessels will be allowed to leave the Port at any hour of the day or night providing the Port is open. The Detaining Authority is to keep the Naval Control Service Officer, Victoria, B.C., informed of all ships which have permission to leave the Port. Masters of deep-sea merchant vessels which clear from the Customs House are to obtain a clearance permit from the Naval Control Service Officer for presentation to the Customs House for the clearance of their vessel.

Port of Esquimalt

19. Vessels will be allowed to leave the Port of Esquimalt when it is open on condition that, in addition to getting permission from the Detaining Authority (Collector of National Revenue (Customs Division)), permission is also obtained from the Naval Officer-in-Charge, H.M.C. Dockyard, Telephone Garden 4101, to whom reference should also be made if any doubt exist as to the purport of these Regulations.

Should the Port of Esquimalt be closed to outgoing vessels by day, a Blue Flag will be hoisted at Bickford Tower at the Eastern entrance to the Port. No vessel may leave the port at night or during fog.

Port of Vancouver

20. No vessel may leave the Port of Vancouver without permission from the Detaining Authority (Collector of National Revenue (Customs Division)), in writing. When a Merchant Vessel desires to leave the Port, the Master or Shipping Agent will inform the Detaining Authority who will decide whether the ship may depart or not. No vessel will be allowed to leave when the Port is closed.

Normally, Merchant Vessels will be allowed to leave the Port of Vancouver at any hour, day or night, provided the Port is open.

Detaining Authority is to keep the Naval Control Service Officer, 406 Marine Building, Vancouver, informed of all ships that have permission to leave the Port.

The Master of any vessel in the Port of Vancouver who is in doubt as to these Regulations, or as to any measure he should take before leaving the Port, should communicate with the Naval Control Service Officer, from whom all information regarding mine warnings, route to be taken, etc., can be obtained.

Should the Port be closed for any reason to outgoing vessels a Blue Flag will be hoisted at Brockton Point. "Masters of Merchant Vessels, which clear from the Customs House, are to obtain a clearance permit from the Naval Control Service Officer, for presentation to the Customs House for the clearance of their vessel."

PART V—PILOTAGE

21. Port of Esquimalt. Pilotage is compulsory for all vessels over 120 tons net entering or leaving Esquimalt Harbour. The only exceptions from this Regulation will be made in favour of regular freight or ferry service vessels frequenting the Ports of Esquimalt and Victoria. Application for exemption must be made to the Chief Examining Officer, H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt.

For vessels approaching from the West, Pilots will be embarked in the vicinity of Race Rocks. For vessels approaching from the East, Pilots will be embarked in the vicinity of Trial Island. Pilots may be disembarked as convenient. For vessels calling off the Quarantine Station at William Head, prior to proceeding to another Port, Pilots may be embarked as convenient in the vicinity of Race Rocks or William Head.

Other Inland Ports. Pilotage is compulsory for vessels proceeding up-river to New Westminster.

Owing to the uncertainty of conditions and the measures which may become necessary to be put into effect at any time, Masters of vessels over 120 tons net tonnage are advised to employ a Pilot of the B.C. Pilotage Authority when seeking entrance to Victoria or Vancouver Harbours. Any damage caused, whether to his own vessel or other property, which could have been avoided by the employment of a Pilot will be the Master's own responsibility. If necessary, Pilots may be embarked off Point Atkinson for vessels seeking entrance to Vancouver Harbour. If no previous application for a pilot has been made, application may be made to the Guardship or Point Atkinson Signal Station and may later be disembarked as convenient.

PART VI—AIR RAID INSTRUCTIONS

22. In the event of an air raid alarm being made while a Merchant Vessel is within the limits of the Ports, the Master is, if his vessel be under way, to darken ship completely and anchor immediately.

Vessels at anchor may only exhibit their anchor lights if necessary to avoid being run down by a vessel under way.

Vessels anchored or alongside are to be prepared to slip and get under way at a moment's notice.

Any anti-aircraft guns carried are to be manned, but guns are not to be fired without specific instructions from competent Military authorities in charge of the A/A Defences of the Port, unless vessel itself is attacked.
